

Gadeplan Aarhus

In the city of Aarhus the different street assessments aiding the young, have since 2015 been gathered in “Gadeplan Aarhus”. In “Gadeplan Aarhus” there are two departments, each belonging to its own magistrate. The heads of both departments work closely together on the day-to-day operation.

- One entrance
- Multi agency approach
- City-wide work and local cooperation

Gadeplan Aarhus

GADEPLAN
BØRN OG UNGE
Aarhus

Outreach in the different youth cultural environments with a city-wide perspective.
Prevention

Outreach in youth cultural environments situated vulnerable places.
Specific outreach work with individuals and groups (also city-wide).

Intrusive /instant

GADEPLAN
UNGDOMSCENTRET

Who are we?

- 14 street-workers
- Kontaktstedet
- Track 215

- 13 Outreach workers spread over three territories (covering the city).

- Focusing on the broad and early prevention.
- The target group is children and young people in the age of 10-17.
- Our focus is to create and support healthy communities and motivating young people to participate.

Key aspects of the outreaching work

Preventing Reaching out
contact
Motivation
Teach
Share knowledge

Methods

- Visibility
- Supporting other activities
- Building bridge from the street to activities
- Building bridge from school to youth clubs.
- Activities. Football cup, projects with role-models: Youth groups, street soccer for girls, help with sparetime job, fitness etc.
- Presence in various events for young people in the city
- Meetings ex. §115 and network meetings
- Individual efforts

Content of our work

Prevent

Outreach

Relation

Motivation – sustained efforts over time

Bridge building to work and education

Awareness of the city pulse

- Focus on vulnerable areas.
- Target group is kids in need of help in the age of 14-18 years (23 years).
- "Our" youngsters are on the boarder of a normal life.

Methods

Specific social efforts

Individual efforts

Local knowledge

